OF LOCAL INTEREST

Mrs. Victor Lueras went to Santa Fe Tuesday to visit friends.

Gladys Wolverton arrived from Santa Fe Monday evening for a visit with Mrs. Hawkins.

Theo. P. Hicks, who proved up on a fine 160-acre homestead a few weeks ago, left yesterday for Oklahoma.

Tanous Tabet, the well known merchant of Mountainair, was transacting business in the county seat yesterday.

Ortiz' store is headquarters for fruit—always the greatest variety and best quality.

Wanted—A registered or high grade Hereford bull. Address, —L. E. Catt, Encino, New Mexico, Box 165.

Bill Bailey of Willard spent Sunday afternoon in the city calling on some friends.

A carload of Jerseys will be shipped from here this evening. They are to be consigned to J. B. McSpadden, at El Paso, Texas.

The lumber business at this point "was never better" according to the lumber dealers. Estancia ships several hundred carloads each year, consigned to points in many states.

Chas. R. Basley, the well known attorney of Santa Fe, spent a few days here last week looking after some business matters.

Fine showers have fallen in various parts of the valley during the past week, and crop prospects continue fine.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Grimmell moved this week to one of Mrs. Grace Goodin's houses, and Dr. and Mrs. Mason again occupy their home.

Fritz Cooney the well known German-Irish comedian of Albuquerque, called on the trade here yesterday. Mr. Cooney carries a tobacco line as a side issue.

The fiesta which is to take place here June 20th, is working up quite an amount of enthusiasm among the people, who are bound to make it a success.

Antonio Salazar was called to Albuquerque Tuesday on account of the serious illness of his aged father, Don Francisco Salazar y Jimenez, who resides in the Duke City.

Tom Rapko went to Willard Monday night to spend a few days on his homestead, which is located near the Hub city. He returned Monday evening.

The Woman's Club will stage a show at Goodin's hall next Saturday night. A laughable farce, and a musical program will be given by home talent. The admission will be 15c, proceeds for the benefit of the library.

Bob Oliver, who was one of the popular bachelors of Estancia up to a few months ago, returned yesterday to spend a few days visiting the old haunts. Bob is now foreman on one of the large ranches near Albuquerque.

Wybert Brown who has been employed at Vaughn during the past few months is back in the city visiting his folks. Mr. Brown expects to leave in a few days for Montoya, where he has accepted a responsible position with a business house.

The Ladies' Aid of the M. E. church will give a tacky party Friday night, June 26th at the Woman's club room. Come dressed as tacky as possible. Admission each 10c, adults or children, refreshments included. Everyone invited.

What might have been a serious accident on the streets of Estancia yesterday was prevented by the timely assistance of E. C. Hayes and Ralph Roberson. Mrs. Kuykendall was just leaving town at a rapid rate when the tongue of her buggy broke and started her horses which started to run, but the ready assistance of the men who caught the team prevented the buggy upsetting.

E. N. Peden is in El Paso buying some cattle.

Sheriff Julius Meyer is another one of our cattle barons who is in the Pass city buying cattle.

M. G. Dye, the well known lumber man of the Manzanos, is in the city for a few days.

Angus McGillivray, who spent several days in Santa Fe last week, returned Monday.

O. W. Bay has been up north-west of Moriarty buying cattle.

Miss Maurine Maxwell has returned from Santa Fe where she has been attending Loretto Academy.

Mrs. Torrence and Mrs. Beatty and children were down from McIntosh Tuesday doing some shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Shope and little son departed for Los Angeles, California, this morning.

W. A. Cameron, traveling freight and passenger agent of the Santa Fe road, with headquarters in El Paso, was here last Saturday looking after the interests of that road.

Mrs. Harlan Mathews returned from Iowa Tuesday and left for Albuquerque Wednesday to attend normal. Mrs. Mathews has been appointed principal of one of the Albuquerque schools.

Miss Goldie Short was one of the eleven nurses who recently graduated from St. Joseph's Infirmary of Ft. Worth, Texas. Miss Short is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Short, who reside southwest of Estancia, and has many friends here.

E. J. Evans of Albuquerque is in the city endeavoring to close up a few contracts for some irrigation plants which will be installed near here in the near future. Mr. Evans is the western representative of the Rumely products.

For Sale—Upright piano in good condition at low price. Inquire of Mrs. L. D. Roberts, Estancia, New Mexico.

Special feast services will be held at the Catholic church Sunday, June 28th. Everybody will be welcome.

Silverton

A good rain fell in this vicinity Tuesday afternoon and night.

Miss Virginia Tutt of McIntosh, who has been visiting at Kentucky Lodge for the past two weeks, returned home last Monday.

The picnic given by the Silverton Sunday school on Friday, the twelfth, was a very enjoyable affair. The day was ideal, and about seventy-five in number assembled near the Shubert well. A croquet set added to the enjoyment of the younger people while the older ones sat in the shade and talked about the weeds, the crops and other enjoyable subjects. A feast was spread and all did ample justice to the same.

Too late for last week's Swat the fly. Is the town cry. But swat the weed. And with great speed, Is country creed.

Mrs. R. F. Clark was called to attend the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. Rex Meador, who was taken suddenly ill on Saturday night.

Chas. Clark made a business trip to Albuquerque the last of the week. He and wife expect to start for Texas to make their home on his return.

Mrs. Hattie Davis and children of Orogrande are expected soon to spend a few weeks with her mother, Mrs. Ben Young.

Bud Chandler and family who have been living in Stanley the past winter and spring have returned to their claim east of this place. Mr. Chandler expects to put in a millet crop and sojourn with this people for a short time, at least.

Rex Meador is having a crop of millet and beans put in on his place west of here and he has also bought the crop on the Wiede-Randers place. His brother Frank is the "man behind the plow."

Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Clark entertained for dinner last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Jess Hubbard and family, Mrs. Chas. Clark and son and Miss Willie May Grant.

LUCIA

Special Correspondence.
J. C. Shelton was a Lucia visitor Tuesday.

E. A. Mattingly and A. R. Wilson went to Estancia Saturday.

A. C. Postal of Albuquerque is visiting J. A. Robertson. Mr. Postal has been here several times and seems to like this part of the country real well.

D. F. Heal is not very well. He has been suffering with stomach trouble for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John McGillivray, Mrs. J. B. White and Miss Letha White spent several days in Albuquerque last week.

G. F. Cobb found his lost cows on the other side of the Federal mountains. The range is good over there and is an inducement to stray cattle.

J. E. Patterson lost two cows recently, one from bloot. Mr. J. McGillivray also lost a fine Jersey from bloot.

W. E. Seay, of Encino, delivered some counters and other store fixtures to Geo. W. Austin & Co. Tuesday. He made a trip to the salt lake before his return home.

M. A. Maloney is cultivating some on his son's place.

M'INTOSH

Special Correspondence.
A large delegation from our Sunday School enjoyed the Moriarty Children's Day program last Sunday.

Miss Lella Laws has returned from Colorado Springs.

Mrs. M. B. Falconer left Sunday for Chicago. She expects to visit New York City and will be away three months. She and little Cathiness will be greatly missed.

John Bowman started Saturday on a visit to Kentucky.

Messrs. Fix and Stump and families spent Sunday with John Gloss.

Robert Oliver came over Saturday to see about his claims east and west of town.

Word comes from the McIntosh colony at Silver City that they are enjoying their work at the normal.

Dwight Stump, Mary Fix and Virginia, Frank and Frand Tutt made a perfect attendance record in our nine months school.

Our Sunday School will keep Children's Day next Sunday.

Clarence Stump is here for a visit to home folks.

POINTS THE WAY
The Statement of this Albuquerque Resident Will Interest Our Readers.

Our neighboring town, Albuquerque, points the way in the words of one of its most respected residents:
A. W. Bambrook, 905 S. Broadway, Albuquerque, N. Mex., says: "I was greatly troubled by pains in the small of my back and in my sides. The kidney secretions were unnatural and at times painful. I had often noticed Doan's Kidney Pills recommended by local people and I got a supply. From the first they helped me and my kidneys were strengthened. I soon felt better in every way. Since then, whenever my kidneys have bothered me, I have used Doan's Kidney Pills and they have never failed to help me."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Bambrook had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

Protection Our Fundamental Principle

Our claim to your confidence is based upon the stanchness of our organization, our steady growth, careful methods, our special precautions to safeguard deposits and the character of every man who is officially connected with the bank. This will be attested by anyone who has studied carefully our financial statements and watched us build upon the foundation of "SAFETY FIRST," adding to our strength the good will of our customers through sincere and helpful service.

CASH RESERVES

in amounts large enough to meet any emergency are always kept in our vault and our assets are convertible with sufficient speed to double our patrons' financial protection in combating any crisis. Eternal vigilance precludes any save gilt-edged investments of our funds. We know and feel the responsibilities of the modern banker—we are conscious of our broadening field and alert to the problems ahead of the American banker. Every transaction is considered from the standpoint of how much aid it will give the customer and how much strength it will add to the bank.

LET US SERVE YOU

Our bank is not too large to give true consideration to the little things that mean much to the welfare of the depositor, not too large to lend counsel to the depositors whose dealings are small but none the less important to him. All who bring their business to us are assured of courteous treatment and appreciative attention. We will be glad to have your name on our list of customers. Every Transaction Here Held in Confidence. We don't want to miss an opportunity to please.
